ROCKS

July 2 Wednesday is Independence Day. Half of the year has gone. We need warmer nights. The cool weather isn't suiting the tobacco. It will bloom out too low.

Mrs. Kenny Williams of Pamplin fell last week and broke her shoulder. Get well wishes is extended her.

Amy Harris who has been real sick is out again.

The vacationers returned from Florida Saturday afternoon late. All were glad to get back home.

Frances Paulette is back home from the hospital. Hope she has a speedy recovery.

The Young Hearts Club had their meeting on Thursday at Evergreen United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Lilly of Odd, West Virginia were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ranson awhile Sunday afternoon on their way to Richmond for a short stay.

It was quite stormy here awhile Saturday afternoon late. Lots of wind and rain.

Mrs. Louise Burks of Kingsport, Tennessee will visit Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ranson until Friday.

Mrs. Erna Roach returned home Sunday afternoon after spending a few days in Richmond with her daughter while her son Aulden and family were on vacation in Florida.

The Taylor's and son of Madison Heights, Virginia are occupying the Bill Smith's home in the community. We welcome them here.

The Bethel Bible Church of Appomattox held their picnic and baptizing at Old Rocks recently.

A very large crowd attended the Randy Lee Funeral at the Presbyterian Church of Pamplin Sunday afternoon. Deepest sympathy is extended the Lee and Baldwin families in their bereavement.

Glad our pastor, Rev. A. M. Taylor was back Sunday from vacation.

Miss Nancy Louni, a nurse of University Hospital, spent the week end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore of Pamplin.

MT. AIRY NEWS

Then spake Jesus to the multitude and to his disciples. Regular preaching service was held at Mt. Airy Baptist Church Sunday, July 1, 1979. Our pastor Re.v H. W. Pryor, preached a wonderful sermon. Mark 6:50. Subject, Just a Little Talk With Jesus Makes It right. The Home Senior Choir rendered beautiful music with Mrs. Alma Pryor at the piano. We were very glad to have many visitors and friends who came to share in the service.

Miss Viola Johnson is home from New York visiting her father Dea. Percy Johnson and grandmother, other relatives and friends, also Mr. and Mrs. Al W. Johnson are happy to have their grandchildren home.

Mrs. Margaret Megginson and granddaughter Reneta is visiting in Baltimore with her daughter. Reneta is spending the summer with her Aunt Mairgtin Chambliss. Their guest for Sunday night was Rev. Mr. Jones from Buckingham County and his choir. He is the pastor of Union Branch Baptist Church and three other churches. Subject holding on to my profession which God has given. Beautiful music by the choir. A prayer for the sick and shut in.

Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Meeting

Members of the Wreck Island Extension Homemakers Club met on Wednesday, June 27th at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Dixie Staten with an attendance of 9 members and 2 visitors present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Dixie Staten who read a poem "Somebody Loves You More Than You Know" by Helen Steiner Rice.

Prayer by Mrs. Marie Carson.

Mrs. Staten led the group in the Homemakers Creed and announced that the 1979 Family Resources Conference is to be held August 1 - 3 at VPI&SU. One club member plans to attend.

Three members entered a quilt and needlework in the Quilt Show held June 23 - 24.

Mrs. Dixie Staten gave a demonstration on making silk flowers.

A social hour followed when the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Virginia Tyler extended an invitation to members and visitors to attend the covered dish luncheon for the July meeting to be held at her home on July 18th at 11 a.m.
